

WESTERN LIBERAL.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1899.

Yesterday was the Jewish New Year.
H. H. Teft has moved his family to Duncan.
H. J. Gammon made a Hachita trip this week.
There are thirty-two scholars on the school roll.
There will be a dance at the opera house Saturday night.
Maurice Downey is now located at Montague, Michigan.
Mrs. W. H. Small gave a "tomato bee" Saturday evening.
A life insurance agent was devastating the city this week.
The Oak Grove cattle company has opened a meat market in Silver City.
Hart Brothers' cowboys left Wednesday for the Animas to attend the round up.
To-morrow the town trustees will receive bids for the construction of the new calaboose.
Mrs. Dr. Simpson and children returned from their Los Angeles visit on Sunday morning.
The fall and winter crop of breakbeam tourists made their appearance in town this week.
Rolla Woodard has gone to Weatherford, Texas, to attend school during the coming winter.
The Atlantic & Pacific strike was settled by a compromise and all trains are running again.
The second edition of the equinoctial storm got around Tuesday and fires were very comfortable.
Charley Miley presented Pat Biggy with a horse this week. Pat will use it to ride when inspecting track.
James Cauthen's family left this week for Italy, Texas, where the children will go to school this winter.
Jim Ownby was up from Hachita this week and left for Phenix, near which place he has some valuable prospects.
F. S. Sanders had a serious attack of sickness this week caused by heart weakness, but, happily, has recovered.
Tim Shine and wife left Saturday for California, where Tim will spend a month or so recuperating from his late illness.
Joe Messon was over from his ranch in the Black Range this week. He reports the grass as being fine all through the Range.
Dr. H. R. King, the popular and proficient Deming dentist, writes the LIBERAL that he will be up here again in about four weeks.
The railroad grade is now out twenty-five miles, and the original contractors are under $2,500,000 forfeit on their 500 mile contract—Headlight.
Deming is going to have a literary society and an academy. The academy will be under the charge of the New West Educational Commission.
Rev. H. J. Farnaux and family returned from their trip into the mountains at Grandville on Monday. They report having a very pleasant time.
Col. Egan was in the city Saturday on his way home from Tucson. While in the Arizona metropolis he had a severe attack of sickness, but has now about recovered from it.
Quite a number of Lordsburg hunters went out after quail Sunday. George Haseline brought in an enormous rattlesnake. He says that the snake but "Blondy" and died.
George Woods returned to his home in the Mogollons Monday. He was accompanied by his mother, who will make a month's visit with him, during which time his wife and niece will remain in Lordsburg.
Harry Classen left Monday evening for San Francisco. It will probably crush several susceptible female hearts located in various parts of Grant county to know that Harry is to be married at the Sansome street Methodist church next Monday evening at eight o'clock.
Sunday a Mexican armed with a machete over a foot long was parading Chihuahua looking for the man who had eloped with his wife. Deputy Sheriff Black captured the knife and arrested the Mexican. Judge Jones gave him a six months' meal ticket at the Whitehill hotel in Silver City.
Sheriff Whitehill was in the city Monday collecting taxes. He remembered the LIBERAL by bringing it a magnificent 60-pound watermelon from his ranch in the suburbs of Mowry City. The melon had a cross cut on its rind which the genial sheriff explained by telling of a peculiar custom which for generations has been practiced on all ranches within sight of the classic cathedral at Mowry. The archbishop of Mowry inspects all products of these ranches before they are used or sold, if they are perfect they are marked with a cross, which is known in all the markets of the south west as the "Mowry padre's brand." All articles not approved are marked with the devil's horn and must be immediately destroyed. Mr. Whitehill is not a Catholic but he lives up to the customs of Mowry because he has found the brand a valuable trademark, and for years every watermelon, steer, horse or anything which was raised on his ranch or that he has sold or given away has been marked with the "Mowry padre's brand."

CLIFTON CULLINGS.

Dick Sanders says he received the magnificent sum of $3 per ton for 10 percent copper ore from the Arizona copper company.
Jeff Whittington has shipped five tons of ore to El Paso that will net in the neighborhood of $100 to the ton.
Grant, Mills & Miller have shipped about eight tons of ore that will net some $200 per ton.
John Torrence and Wm. Polk, with "Shorty" as guide and chief of scouts, are posing on the headwaters of the Blue as nimble and expert anglers.
The Clifton Clarion material was sold under the hammer at sheriff's sale last Friday to satisfy a judgment of $40 and costs of $26.35. It was announced at the time of the sale that another execution was hanging over the material and that the sale would be subject to said execution of $124, together with the costs. This cost business is quite an item for whom it may concern.
A Mexican circus showed here last Saturday and Sunday nights to good houses. The performance was of the trapeze order and in that line the work was good. They went from here to Morenci.
Last Monday night a Mexican named Brailio, an ex-captain in the Mexican army was endeavoring to enter the premises of Santiago Gomez, a saloon keeper at the Metcalf. Gomez heard him and asked him what he wanted. Brailio responded "nothing," which answer did not seem to be satisfactory, so Gomez cut loose with a sixshooter and shot Brailio in the shoulder, inflicting what may be a fatal wound. Constable Smith arrested Gomez and now has him in custody awaiting the result of Brailio's wounds before examination.
Capt. Kelly has a Gila monster in the pickle. Pa Meader says they are fine eating when they are ripe.
The town is exceedingly dull.
A batch of Missourians are looked for next Saturday.
The Gold Mountain company will start the mill Tuesday. The new pump is in place.
Prospectors here want statehood and have no sympathy with the play that has been given by the office-holding organs of the territory. They claim that Governor Wolfley has shown a disposition to over ride the will of the people in not issuing a proclamation ordering an election in terms of a law passed last March. On that subject the Tombstone Epitaph strikes the key note of their sentiments.
NAUANT.
The Citizen says that Uncle Josh Bailey of Bailey's well was in Tucson this week, attending court and that the old gentleman got out with George Kelley and the rest of the boys and had what is known in El Paso as a bat. The next morning the old gentleman unconsciously tapped the old several times before breakfast. He finally discovered what he was doing and was heard commencing in a surprised tone of voice with himself as follows: "Here, you, Josh Bailey, you have lived in Arizona for thirty years, you have always borne a good reputation, and last fall was elected a supervisor of Graham county on the party ticket, and now, doggone your old skin, you have come down to Tucson and gone to drinking water. I'll just fine you $10 for the benefit of the Graham county school fund." And the old gentleman pulled out a ten dollar gold piece, wrapped it up in a piece of paper, marked it "school fund," and stowed it away in his wallet.
Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Julia Dornell died very suddenly. About four o'clock in the morning she was attacked with a severe pain in the head which continued during the day and at times rendered her unconscious. At three o'clock she died. Dr. Simpson said the cause of the death was an abscess in the brain. The abscess had grown very quietly and had never given any sign until the morning of her death. Mr. Dornell wishes the LIBERAL to thank the neighbors for their kindness and attention during the sickness and till after the funeral.
The following from the Grand Haven, Michigan, Herald seems to show that a lucky lottery ticket is not held in the region in Michigan that it is in New Mexico: The San Francisco Chronicle of Aug. 20th in announcing a lottery drawing made in Mexico Aug. 11th says that "ticket 23,902 draws the second capital prize $19,000, sold in Grand Haven, Mich." Who in this town is wicked enough to take by gambling $19,000 which he never earned or obtained in any legitimate way?
Wah Lee, a festive China washerman and something of a sport, who left town last spring to go to China, turned up again this week. He says he went to China and came back by San Francisco, buying a merchant's ticket, he also says he came back through Mexico, by El Paso, while his brother says he came back through Mexico, by Nogales. Wah Lee is pretty smooth and there is not much doubt but that he slipped past the custom guards at some place.
John Shennan, the president and superintendent of the Arizona & New Mexico road left Saturday evening for San Francisco. It is rumored that there are other attractions than business which render this trip necessary and that when he returns Mrs. Shennan will accompany him.

Last Friday Sam Hatch, a festive cow boy who has been working on the O—O ranch, went into Duncan. Now Duncan whiskey was never intended for cowboys, it is too rich for their blood. Notwithstanding this well known scientific fact Professor Hatch proceeded to experiment with the deadly fluid. As was to be expected, the result was disastrous. The whiskey effervesced like a mixed saltillo powder. To relieve his soul the professor threw a bottle through the depot window, barely missing the head of Agent Brown. As this did not afford the desired relief he mounted his horse and rode it up onto the steps and into Boon Brothers' store. H. C. Boon took the horse by the bits and led him out, at the same time requesting Hatch to keep away. The professor then delivered a short oration, more scientific than pious, touching on the mutability of events, the heatfulness of the hereafter and wound up by announcing his determination to ride into the store again. This roused the blood of old Daniel which is flowing in Howard's veins, and he picked up an iron bar and awaited developments. When Hatch got up on the steps Boon manipulated the bar and the professor landed on his head in the street. The doctor says he set the jaw bone and if gangrene does not set in Hatch will get well. Hatch experimented with Lordsburg whiskey once and went flying down the street slowly followed by a No. 10 boot. R. P. Hart has presented Mr. Boon's petition for membership in the athletic division of the Spider family.
The Wilcox people are going to have an artesian well. They have raised eleven hundred dollars and have contracted with Dumont & Wilson to sink the well for which they will furnish the piping and pay them twenty-five cents per foot. If the well is a success the contractors will receive the reward offered by the Cochise county commissioners, but the well will belong to the Wilcox gentlemen who put up the money.
Last Saturday the LIBERAL sent out a number of statements to its subscribers who were in arrears. None of our subscribers need feel offended if they fail to receive a statement and we will take no offense on receiving the remittance. In the words of the wise man: "Pangloss de pungle."
Last Sunday night Charley Claire came near losing his house by fire. He said he was winding the clock when he accidentally knocked the lamp over with his elbow. Charley was a little excited, but managed to kick the door open and throw the lamp out of the window. The fire department was not called out.
School has been in session two whole weeks and only two fights reported.
People in general should know what's best to do in any case of a sudden complaint. It is a well established fact that prompt relief may be had in any case of cold, cholera morbus, dysentery or diarrhoea by giving a few doses of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. It acts quickly, can always be depended upon and pleasant to take. For sale at Eagle drug store.
